My dear Sir, Am with Thanks

When good Bishop Chase favoured me with his company I intended to introduce him to one of my friends, <sup>Mr. Thompson</sup> who is a liberal contributor to many of our religious charities but he did not at that time entertain the same views of Bishop Chase's object which we did, I had however the pleasure to receive from him the other day a note in which he says "I see that the presunder
"orthodox writers in the Review called "the British critic insinuate that Bishop "Chase is a Fanatic & a Methodist & as I "have understood for these fifty years "past what such language means that "has generally raised my opinion of "the pity of the man to whom it is "applied, I beg that you will send to "Bishop Chase for me the inclosed

"ten pounds note, in support of his "plan for establishing a Seminary "in the state of Ohio & I pray God to "give him abundant success"

I send you inclosed the note for £10, & I shall be glad to find that the abuse of our excellent friend the Bishop has been met in various quarters, by answers equally efficacious when you write to Bishop Chase may I beg of you to present my Kind regards & best wishes to him

Believe me

my dear Sir

Yours sincerely
